

IT'S

ABOUT

TIME

TOGETHER

WE CAN

END AIDS

This World AIDS Day, join five leaders in the fight against AIDS for an engaging conversation about what it will take to defeat HIV/AIDS in our lifetime. Mo Rocca, correspondent for CBS News Sunday Morning, will moderate a panel discussion probing the latest advances in prevention, the coming battles in advocacy, and the challenges that we can overcome by working together.

HOUSING WORKS BOOKSTORE CAFE

126 Crosby Street New York, NY 10012

TUESDAY | DEC. 1, 2015

6:30 P.M.

Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres

7 – 8:30 P.M.

Discussion with Q&A

PANELISTS

DR. MARY T. BASSETT

Commissioner of NYC Department of Health and Mental Hygiene

DR. MARK FEINBERG

CEO of the International AIDS Vaccine Initiative

CHARLES KING

CEO of Housing Works and Co-Chair of Governor Cuomo's AIDS Task Force

KELSEY LOUIE

CEO of Gay Men's Health Crisis and Member of Governor Cuomo's AIDS Task Force

CHASE STRANGIO

Staff Attorney at the American Civil Liberties Union

RSVP - EndAIDStogether.eventbrite.com