Microbicide Clinical Trials Timeline

VOICE (MTN 003): Completed study that did not find vaginal tenofovir gel or oral PrEP effective in prevention HIV for women.

CAPRISA 004: Completed study that found vaginal tenofovir gel effective in prevention of HIV for women.

FACTS 001: Ongoing study to assess safety and effectiveness of vaginal tenofovir gel.

CAPRISA 008: Ongoing study to assess effectiveness of integrating vaginal tenofovir gel provision into existing contraception services for women.

MTN 017: Ongoing study to assess the safety and acceptability of oral PrEP and rectal tenofovir gel for MSM and transgender women.

The Ring Study (IPM 027): Ongoing study to assess safety and efficacy of vaginal dapivirine ring.

ASPIRE (MTN 020): Ongoing study to assess safety and efficacy of vaginal dapivirine ring.

FACTS 002: Planned study to assess safety and acceptability of vaginal tenofovir gel in adolescent girls.

Efficacy Trial: Planned study to assess efficacy of rectal tenofovir gel.

For a complete list of ongoing microbicide trials: AVAC HIV Prevention Research & Development Database (PxRD) www.avac.org/pxrd