

Congress Must Stay Committed to Defeating Global HIV/AIDS

U.S. INVESTMENTS AND GLOBAL LEADERSHIP IN FIGHTING AIDS HAVE PRODUCED DRAMATIC AND UNPRECEDENTED RESULTS.

But the AIDS epidemic is not over.

Congress MUST ACT NOW to maintain funding levels to keep us moving towards ending AIDS.

Over 2 million people were infected last year—including 240,000 children—and 16 million people are still in need of HIV treatment.

WITH SUSTAINED FINANCIAL RESOURCES IN 2015, THE U.S. GOVERNMENT WILL BE ABLE TO:

PROVIDE 300,000 MORE PEOPLE WITH TREATMENT

HELP 55,000 ADDITIONAL PREGNANT WOMEN GET, AND STAY, ON TREATMENT RESULTING IN 17,000 FEWER BABIES BORN WITH HIV

AVERT 62,000 AIDS-RELATED DEATHS

THIS WORLD AIDS DAY, WE REMIND CONGRESS THAT BECAUSE OF ITS LEADERSHIP, WHAT WAS ONCE THOUGHT TO BE AN UNSTOPPABLE DISEASE IS NOW CLOSER THAN EVER TO BEING STOPPED IN ITS TRACKS.

WE CALL ON CONGRESS TO AGAIN WORK TOGETHER TO PROTECT U.S. INVESTMENTS TO COMBAT GLOBAL HIV/AIDS
